PREFACE

This issue of the Trade, Transport, and Communication Part of the Statistical Register for New South Wales contains statistics for 1957-58, 1956-57, and earlier years. The previous issue was Part V of the Statistical Register for 1954-55.

The statistics given in this publication should be read in conjunction with the Official Year Book of New South Wales. For the latest figures in the principal statistical series, the reader should refer to other publications of the Bureau, particularly the Statistical Bulletin and the Monthly Summary of Business Statistics.

My thanks are tendered to the responsible officers of the various State and Commonwealth Departments and to others who have supplied information, often at considerable trouble.

K. Davison
Deputy Commonwealth Statistician

Bureau of Census and Statistics,

TRADE, TRANSPORT, AND COMMUNICATION

Section I. OVERSEA TRADE

Statistics of Oversea Trade are compiled from records of the Department of Customs and Excise.

Basis of Valuation. The values of oversea imports and exports are expressed in Australian currency, free on board at port of ipment.

Outside Packages. Outside packages (containers, crates, etc.) have always been treated as a separate item in the classification imports, but a classification of them by country of origin is available only from 1950-51. For exports, however, the value recorded r each item includes the value of outside packages.

Section IV. SHIPPING

The Shipping Statistics of New South Wales contained in Tables 1 to 17 relate generally to vessels engaged in nor trade, that is, the carriage of part or full cargoes for civil purposes. They are exclusive of vessels trading solely between port New South Wales, war vessels, cable-laying vessels, yachts, and, during the war period, vessels engaged exclusively in the trans of troops, war equipment and supplies. A vessel is counted as an entry once and as a clearance once for each voyage to and fr New South Wales, being entered at the first port of call and cleared at the port from which final departure is taken; any intras movements of the vessel are excluded. In Tables 18 and 19 particulars are shown regarding all vessels (excluding warships) wl entered the principal ports of New South Wales, viz.: oversea, interstate and intrastate vessels, including vessels engaged exclusi in the transport of troops, war equipment and supplies.

Gross tonnage of a vessel is the internal cubical capacity expressed as tons; one hundred cubic feet equals one ton.

Net tonnage of a vessel is gross tonnage as defined above, less spaces which cannot be utilised for carriage of cargo a passengers, e.g., engines and crew's quarters.

Section VIII. AIR TRANSPORT

No. 1. Regular Air Services Terminating in New South Wales and Operated by Australian-Owned Airlines*, 1947-48 to 1957-58

These statistics, which have been compiled by the Department of Civil Aviation, show Oversea, Interstate, and Intrastate Services separately. Where a journey extends over more than one of these services, particulars of passengers, freight, and mail carried are duplicated in the statistics. The Oversea Services include all traffic carried over stages outside Australia.

† From July, 1942 to December, 1951, a licence was necessary for each receiver. From 1st January, 1952, a single licence authorizes all the receivers ordinarily kept by a holder or his family at the address shown on the licence.

‡ The annual fee was increased from £1 to £2 from 1st January, 1952.

Television in New South Wales

The regular transmission of TV programmes commenced in New South Wales late in 1956. There are three TV stations (one national and two commercial), and their transmitting antennae are situated at Gore Hill, a suburb of Sydney.

A TV viewer's licence must be obtained by a person possessing one or more TV receivers at any one address; with certain exceptions the annual licence fee is £5. The number of TV viewers' licences in force in New South Wales at 30th June was 28,912 in 1957 and 143,422 in 1958.

PREFACE

This issue of the Trade, Transport, and Communication Part of the Statistical Register for New South Wales contains trade, shipping, and communication statistics for 1958-59 and earlier years and transport statistics for 1959-60 and earlier years.

The statistics given in this publication should be read in conjunction with the Official Year Book of New South Wales. For the latest figures in the principal statistical series, the reader should refer to other publications of the Bureau, particularly the Statistical Bulletin and the Monthly Summary of Business Statistics.

My thanks are tendered to the responsible officers of the various State and Commonwealth Departments and to others who have supplied information, often at considerable trouble.

K. Davison
Deputy Commonwealth Statistician

Bureau of Census and Statistics,
Sydney.

TRADE, TRANSPORT, AND COMMUNICATION

Section I. OVERSEA TRADE

Statistics of Oversea Trade are compiled from records of the Department of Customs and Excise.

Basis of Valuation. The values of oversea imports and exports are expressed in Australian currency, free on board at port of ient.

Outside Packages. Outside packages (containers, crates, etc.) have always been treated as a separate item in the classification ports, but a classification of them by country of origin is available only from 1950-51. For exports, however, the value recorded ch item includes the value of outside packages.

Section IV. SHIPPING

The Shipping Statistics of New South Wales contained in Tables 1 to 15 relate generally to vessels engaged in no trade, that is, the carriage of part or full cargoes for civil purposes. They are exclusive of vessels trading solely between por New South Wales, war vessels, cable-laying vessels, yachts, and, during the war period, vessels engaged exclusively in the trans of troops, war equipment and supplies. A vessel is counted as an entry once and as a clearance once for each voyage to and f New South Wales, being entered at the first port of call and cleared at the port from which final departure is taken; any intra movements of the vessel are excluded. In Tables 16 and 17 particulars are shown regarding all vessels (excluding warships) w entered the principal ports of New South Wales, viz.: oversea, interstate and intrastate vessels, including vessels engaged exclusi in the transport of troops, war equipment and supplies.

Gross tonnage of a vessel is the internal cubical capacity expressed as tons; one hundred cubic feet equals one ton.

Net tonnage of a vessel is gross tonnage as defined above, less spaces which cannot be utilised for carriage of cargo passengers, e.g., engines and crew's quarters.
